HEAVY RAIN AND FOOD.

On Wednesday morning two inches of water fell at Woodstock. Heavier rains were reported South of this place. The river at last reports had a rise of 20 feet and was still rising.

There has been great damage along the river. Many crops of corn and wheat have been washed out or covered. The corn and wheat upon the uplands have been much injured.

About 75 feet of the railroad South of Broadway was washed out and trains were delayed about eight hours. The road was repaired and trains ran through last evening.

The mail carrier from Powell's Fort, Mr. Samuel Boyce, lost the mail and ten dollars in money in crossing a swelling stream. He crossed the mountain and reached the river bridge East Woodstock, but was stopped there by the water which had spread over Rush's bottom lands. The river is said to be as high as it was in the flood of 1870 and '77. Fortunately there has been no loss of life.

The dam and trunks at Lantz Mills have been destroyed and the levee work put in at the railroad bridge was loosened and the structure to that extent weakened.

Better Railroad Facilities.

The Southern Railway are now running two trains, one through and one local from Washington to Harrisonburg every evening except Sunday. Trains No. 13 leaves Washington at 3:30 p. m. passes Woodstock at 7:20 and arrives at Harrisonburg at 9:00 p. m.

Train No. 217 leaves Washington at 4:30 p. m., passes Woodstock at 8:42 and arrives at Harrisonburg at 10:25.

Trains No. 28 leaves Harrisonburg at 2:55, passes Woodstock at 4:26 p. m., and arrives at Washington, at 9:30 p. m.

Train No. 216 leaves Harrisonburg at 6:40 p. m. passes Woodstock at 8:40 and arrives at Strasburg, at 8:45 p. m.

Train No. 13 carries mail, but 217 does not.

While this arrangement will be a great accommodation to the traveling public, the only disadvantage is that the Winchester mail which reached this place, at 8:34 p. m. does not now reach us till the following day.

John Miller, Jr., Has Narrow Escape.

Mr. John Miller, Jr., narrowly escaped being killed Sunday evening when the horse which he was driving ran off, completely demolishing the buggy, throwing Mr. Miller out and dragging him some distance. He is severely bruised and has several cuts about his body. The accident happened while he was returning from Columbia Furnace, where he had taken his wife and children.

The accident happened, on the pike just South of Willow Grove. One side of the shaft of the buggy dropped on the horse's legs causing it to make a wild dash down the pike, with the above results.

SAGER-NEWMAN.

One of the most brilliant weddings that has been solemnized in the valley for years was the marriage of Miss Helen Newman, only daughter of Judge and Mrs. Edgar Douglas Newman to Dr. Washington Budd Sager. The ceremony was performed at the beautiful home of the bride on South Mühlenberg street.

The decorations in the parlor were in white and green, the bay window was banked with roses, carnations, ferns and palms with a magnificent wedding bell of white roses and smilax under which the ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Robert Lee Fultz, of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The bride was beautifully gowned in an exquisite robe of ivory satin draped with Marquisette and embroidered in seed pearls. Her tulle veil was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

To the strains of Lohegrin's wedding march played by Miss Virginia Haslett the bride entered with her father who gave her in marriage.

Miss Elizabeth Duncan, of Athens, Alabama was maid of honor, she was attired in a white satin striped chiffon trimmed with real lace and carried La France roses.

The groom was attended by Mr. Melvin Sager, of Winchester. "O Promise Me" was softly played during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party left the parlor.

Messrs. Harold Hastings and Edgar Newman, Walter Wunder and Morgan Lauck Walton, Jr., acted as ushers.

Only relatives and intimate friends were present at the marriage. Over a hundred and fifty friends of the young couple were present at the reception which followed immediately after the ceremony.

The bridal party received in the library which was handsomely decorated in ferns, palms and red roses.

The color scheme of pink and white was effectively carried out in the dining room; the bride's table was a dream of beauty; white roses wound with smilax were suspended from the chandelier to the four corners of the table where immense vases of carnations and roses were placed, a pyramid of pink and white roses formed the center piece, the entire house was elaborately decorated.

The wedding presents were numerous and handsome and consisted in part of silver, cut glass, hand painted china and linen.

Dr. Sager is a son of the late Hon. Washington Sager who for several years represented this county in the Legislature. He is a graduate of Milligan College Tennessee, and of the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, he is a prominent young physician and during his residence in this place has won the respect and esteem of our people.

Dr. and Mrs. Sager left in an automobile for Toms Brook where they took the afternoon train for an extended bridal trip, after which they will make their home in this place.

The following out-of-town guests were present: Mrs. Price, of New Market; Dr. Hansboro, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sager of Winchester; Miss Marion Walton and Mr. Lyn Walton of Luray; Mr. Pennybaker, of Mt. Jackson and Miss Katharine Ainsley, of Washington.

Hon. and Mrs. M. L. Walton received in honor of Miss Helen Newman and Dr. Washington Budd Sager Monday evening at their handsome residence on North Mühlenberg street.

About fifty guests were present. The parlors and library were prettily decorated in red roses and smilax.

An amusing contest especially suited to the occasion was the "Prophecy of the future of the bride and groom." Heart shaped cards with clever etchings of the young couple were distributed to those present and they were told to write the future of Dr. and Mrs. Sager on the reverse side.

The combination of wit and wisdom displayed by these descriptions afforded much merriment when read, and revealed not only the future of the bride and groom but the unmistakable evidence of literary talent and well trained minds of some of the writers.

The decorations in the dining room were white and green, this color scheme being also carried out in the refreshments of cakes and ices.

Mrs. Alice Haslett and Miss Virginia Haslett entertained the Newman-Sager bridal party at a well appointed course dinner on Tuesday evening at their home on Mühlenberg street.

THE CORPORATION ELECTION.

The corporation election passed off very quietly last Tuesday. Candidates were scarcely seen on the streets, and few votes were solicited by friends.

On the morning of the election there appeared on the streets two tickets, one with Mr. M. E. Stickley for Mayor, and six prominent business men for councilmen. It is just to these gentlemen to say that they were not consulted, and were not candidates, and some would have refused to serve, if they had been elected. On the other were only the names of the old councilmen, with no candidate for Mayor. A very small vote was cast only 119 out of a possible 280. The result is as follows:

FOR MAYOR.

J. H. Roddifer..... 47
M. E. Stickley..... 43
W. W. Logan..... 18

FOR SIX COUNCILMEN.

H. Morrison, Jr..... 56
J. Grove Kneisley..... 78

J. S. Hoshour..... 54
J. H. Clower..... 46
J. C. Paxton..... 45

F. S. Tavenner..... 42
J. N. Davis..... 39

There were also a number of scattering votes. All the old councilmen were re-elected except Mr. J. H. Clower who had served as a councilman, for 28 years.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETS.

The Shenandoah County Medical Society met Wednesday in the Geary Hotel parlors. The attendance was good, including physicians from all parts of the county, and the meeting was the most interesting the Society has ever held.

The noted Government Chemist and food expert, Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, of Washington, addressed the meeting, presenting some valuable points concerning health and health boards.

Dr. Ed. M. Hasbrouck, a well known surgeon of Washington, also read a very interesting paper upon a very unusual interest. Several county Doctors made reports of cases of unusual interest. These meetings are very instructive and interesting to all the physicians that attend.

The question of building or arranging a County Hospital, all county doctors to be mutually interested was discussed and a committee of nine was appointed to consider the matter and report upon its desirability and feasibility of such a plan.

The Society certainly deserves great credit for arranging public free lectures in the Court House, telling people how to live and stay well by such high authority as Dr. Wiley.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Dr. D. D. Carter.
1st V. President—Dr. M. R. Bruns.
2d V. President—Dr. D. L. Shaver.
Sec'y-Treas.—Dr. Wm. F. Driver.

RAPIDLY SPREADING OVER THE WORLD.

And Its Reputation is Great in This Locality.

The knowledge of the wonderful merits of Root Juice is rapidly spreading all over the world. Newspapers of nearly every state are publishing reports of the great good it is doing. Many local people, who have tried the remedy, are loud in praise of it. It seems to be the unexcelled for chronic stomach troubles, liver and kidney disorders, and when it does cure, the cure seems to be permanent, as those who took the remedy when it was first placed on the market continue to praise it. Root Juice is very healing to the stomach, bowels, bladder, liver and kidneys, and has a wonderful tonic action on the blood making it seem to benefit every one who takes it from the very start. It prevents fermentation in the stomach and bowels, creates a good appetite, rids the system of acids and other poisons, by healing and toning up the filtering organs. Many who suffered with rheumatism a long time say that after taking a few bottles of Root Juice they could almost feel the disease melting away. Others who suffered intensely with stomach trouble say the first dose of Root Juice made them feel better and that after taking a bottle or so of the great medicine they felt hungry all the time and could eat anything and digest it.

The people at the Walton & Smoot drug store are chock full of reliable information concerning the great remedy.

A Correction.

In the hurry and bustle of Monday afternoon names were transposed in the article relating to the attempt of youth to pass a check bearing the forged name of Senator Gray Silver, the youngster who is held responsible for the attempt is Albert Johnson, not Douglas Parker. Johnson endeavored to implicate young Parker, but eventually acknowledged that the latter had nothing to do with the matter. Nothing has been done so far with Johnson. The undesirable notoriety due Johnson's erroneous accusation and the mix-up of names in the published article was very naturally distasteful to Mr. Parker.—Martinsburg World.
